

Appropriate Body Services	Schools using a provider led programme	School using school-lead programme - opting to use DfE approved materials provided by NIOT and UCL	Schools opting to designing and delivering their own training materials based on the ECTP	Fast track reduced induction for ECTs with exceptional experience
ECTE fidelity check	No fidelity check required	Under the updated 2025/26 guidance, schools delivering their own ECTP can now have greater flexibility in how they design and deliver their programme		No fidelity check required unless schools are using the school-based programme for induction
What the schools will need to do:		Headteacher to complete a Fidelity check form, ECT and mentor to track termly engagement on the Xavier tracking and monitoring document School to outline how the ECT and mentor will engage with the training sessions and the sequenced self-directed study	Headteacher to complete a Fidelity check form, and Xavier monitoring and tracking document. School to demonstrate a clear breakdown of how the ECT' will receive training and mentoring to support every ECTE statement in sufficient depth and breadth, with robust evidenced based rationales for how the framework has been translated into an ECTE-based training programme. Set out a two-year programme with sequenced and scheduled curriculum	Headteachers and ECTs will complete the fast-track application form and sponsorship documents to request approval for an ECT to complete their induction on a reduced timeframe because of significant prior teaching responsibilities.
How the Appropriate Body will check the school's fidelity to the ECTP		Pre-induction check 1 – Induction for the ECT and mentor, document completion to monitor the fidelity to the ECTP Review point 2 – Check school implementation of plans at the end of year 1 Review point 3 – Check school's delivery and record any divergence from the planned delivery of the course	Pre-induction check 1 – check the school has designed an induction for the ECT and mentor with fidelity to the ECTP.
