

Session overview

This is an optional session that will further your understanding of the importance of structuring talk in the classroom and the impact this can have on reading, writing and communication across different subjects and phases.

During this session, you will:

- Explore the impact that structured talk can have on pupil learning
- Read recommendations from guidance reports that will help you to consider how different types of talk can improve reading, writing and communication in your subject or phase
- Complete a knowledge check to ensure you have a thorough understanding of the guidance
- Apply what you have learnt to your practice

ECF statements covered

classroom practice

Learn that...

4.7 High quality talk can support pupils to articulate key ideas, consolidate understanding and extend their vocabulary.